

RETHINKING PROTECTION:

Raising the Bar on Legal Protections for Survivors and Children

WEBINAR: MONDAY, JULY 1ST
3:30–5:00 PM ET

How can child- and family-serving agencies, advocates, and communities help ensure access to the high-quality legal advocacy needed to keep families together? Join this critical conversation to learn about the challenges to survivor safety and well-being created by the legal structure of child welfare. Expand your knowledge on the ways legal protections and social supports can create meaningful pathways to keep families out of child welfare and children out of foster care.

Register at bit.ly/survivorprotections

MEET THE PANELISTS

SHARWLINE NICHOLSON

Mother, Survivor and Lead Plaintiff on
Nicholson v. Scoppetta

MELODY WEBB, ESQ.

Executive Director,
Mother's Outreach
Network (D.C.)